

ANDRZEJ BEŁKOT, STANISŁAW KANDULSKI, MARTA KOSIŃSKA
Cultural Theory and History: The Change and Everyday Life

The Change and Everyday Life is the third book of the series "Cultural Theory and History," initiated during a seminary on this topic held in Institute of Cultural Studies at Adam Mickiewicz University. Here the authors follow different topics according to their own scholarly interest, ranging from the problems of everyday life to gender specifications within musical culture, united by common perspective of the explanation of diachronic sociocultural processes.

ISBN: 978-83-64902-01-7
112 stron, format A5

Seria wydawnicza „Cultural Theory and History”

- Krzysztof Moraczewski, Cultural Theory and History: Theoretical Issues
- Dorota Jewdokimow, Karolina Kizińska, Cultural Theory and History: Sign and Context
- Magdalena Kamińska, Olga Urban, Cultural Theory and History: Innovation and Subjectivity
- Andrzej Bełkot, Stanisław Kandulski, Marta Kosińska, Cultural Theory and History: The Change and Everyday Life